

John Carl Named Founding Lecturer at “The Retirement Advisor University” at UCLA

TRAU™ –The Retirement Advisor University at UCLA Anderson School of Management Executive Education—is the first retirement planning certification program offered in cooperation with a nationally recognized institution of higher learning. TRAU grants the Certified 401(k) Professional or C(k)P™ designation, which distinguishes financial professionals who have demonstrated the knowledge and ability to positively affect the retirement outcome for participants in company retirement plans.

John Carl, founder and president of the Retirement Learning Center, serves as one of the distinguished Founding Lecturers for the university.
