

Special July Edition of IRS' Employee Plans News

The IRS published a special edition of its Employee Plans Newsletter. Highlights include 1) another extension for plan sponsors in disaster areas with prototype and volume submitter documents to file their determination letter applications as late as July 30, 2010; 2) Schedule SSA (Form 5500) has been replaced with Form 8955-SSA in 2011; and 3) determination letter filing fees will be increasing.

Readers may access the newsletter through the following link.

www.irs.gov/retirement/article/0,,id=96731,00.html

©2010 Retirement Learning Center, LLC